MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : CIA Support to Defense Intelligence School

When I reported at the Morning Meeting of 17 December on the rather extensive support that CIA speakers and the Office of Training are providing to the DIA Defense Intelligence School, you asked that I consider whether a letter for your signature should be sent to Secretary Vance informing him of the extent of this support.

After reviewing the matter with the Director of Training, I believe that perhaps the best vehicle for establishing our "credit" with the Secretary is the annual report prepared by the Commandant of the Defense Intelligence School. The 1965 report is due to be published this month, and the CIA liaison officer to the School has arranged for the report to include proper coverage of the support rendered by CIA during the year.

When the 1965 DIS report is issued, we can arrange, we believe, for a copy to be brought suitably to Secretary Vance's attention. If this line of action is agreeable, we will proceed with it.

The attached suggests a means of bringing to Secretary Vance's attention the support CIA provides to the Defense Intelligence School.
